Just to thank for and address a few of the points already made. I did consider new build but I intend to stay in this house 2 or 3 years max before buying with my partner when the budget would likely be nearer double.

Buying a house; all advice welcome | RailUK Forums

Timber framing and "post-and-beam" construction are traditional methods of building with heavy timbers, creating structures using squared-off and carefully fitted and joined timbers with joints secured by large wooden pegs. It is commonplace in wooden buildings from the 19th century and earlier. If the structural frame of load-bearing timber is left exposed on the exterior of the building it ...
