A parenting style is indicative of the overall emotional climate in the home. Developmental psychologist Diana Baumrind identified three main parenting styles in early child development: authoritative, authoritarian, and permissive. These parenting styles were later expanded to four, to include an uninvolved style.

Confession is an important and necessary part of the Christian life. James said, "Confess your trespasses to one another (James 5:16) ...." Men who God has greatly used down through the Christian ages have noticed that God seems to be hindered in bringing revival when there is an absence of confession.

Faith in God is the key to pleasing God. It is right to have faith because God is reliable. Faith also releases the blessing of God. It brings God onto the scene. Many people fail to get answers to prayer because they don't have the kind of relationship with God that makes them confident that God is going to answer them.
