A dominant-party system, or one-party dominant system, is a system where there is "a category of parties/political organisations that have successively won election victories and whose future defeat cannot be envisaged or is unlikely for the foreseeable future." Many are de facto one-party systems, and often devolve into de jure one-party systems. ...

Seeing old friends in a new light: A divergent synthesis of quinine and quinidine (see structures) was designed on the basis of a symmetrical and nonstereogenic intermediate, conceptually different from the stereodefined piperidine precursors used in past syntheses. Complementary late-stage local-desymmetrization reactions were developed to access the two targets.
