Great thriller (I liked just that little touch of romance too). Good read. The various parts of the country are beautifully descibed and the background is accurate - making the premise scarily realistic.

Too Greedy to Live by Ad Long - Goodreads

Long's debut novel fuses thriller-style writing with an examination of wealth inequality. The book opens with the memorable image of a group of divers interacting with a whale shark off the coast of Australia.

Though greedy and egoistic in their own right, both these movements fell victim to the mystification, the fetishism of privatized territory. In both cases, the revolutionaries were left in paltriness, the pathetic possessors of mere fragments of a revolution (these fragments by their very nature sublated into naught).
