Life changing read.(Jeremiah 17:9 The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?) Macdonald says,"And that is all my double story. How double it is, if you care to know, you must find out." If you have little people in your life read them this parable and if they have the ears to hear, your help will set them on the road to freedom from self.

Wise Women Don't Worry, Wise Women Don't Sing the Blues Here is a great book that can actually help people transform their lives. In each chapter Jane uses a story from her past to illustrate how ideas can limit your life, and then provides a "worksheet" for the reader to use as a guide to applying the lessons of the book to a real-life example ...

Wise Women Don't Worry, Wise Women Don't Sing the Blues

Wise people don't worry about what other people think or what other people do. They know that they can only control themselves and that what other people think doesn't matter. For example, if a wise person lives in a small, modest home because the house was affordable, he or she doesn't worry about people in larger, costlier homes.
